1. Statement of Purpose

The primary purpose of scholarships is to provide a resource for adults with intellectual disabilities that have a financial hardship to engage in developmental programming in our community.

2. Management

The Scholarship Committee of Life Experiences shall serve as the administrator of Scholarships. This Committee shall review all applications along with the Life Experiences leadership staff. All scholarship applications shall be reviewed at the regular Scholarship Committee Meetings. The scholarship will bring recommendations to the full board meetings at which time the approval of the scholarship will receive a formal vote. Meetings may also be specially called for this purpose.

3. Eligibility and/or Qualifications

- a) Adults with intellectual disabilities.
- b) At least 18 years of age at the time services will begin.
- c) Residents of Wake or one of the surrounding Counties, (Chatham, Orange, Durham, Johnson, Harnett, Nash, Franklin) such that they would engage in programming in Wake County.
- d) Evidence of financial need.

4. Selection

- a) Review of a completed standard application by the Scholarship Committee
- b) Review of Federal tax return for two years immediately preceding application.
- c) Review of personal statement of financial need of individual submitting the request.

5. Guidelines

The following guidelines are established to assist with the determination of the Scholarship Award.

- a) Scholarships shall be reviewed/awarded annually.
- b) Scholarship awards may be for any amount (full or partial) but shall be specified in dollar amount for budgeting purposes.
- c) Scholarships are not automatically renewed. For renewal consideration, scholarship re-applications must be submitted annually by April 30 for the following fiscal year (July 1-June 30).
- d) New scholarship applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis, unless funding capacity has been reached.
- e) Scholarships shall be awarded only if funding is available.
- f) Scholarships shall be for tuition only and are not paid directly to the consumer.
- g) Scholarships are non-transferable.
- h) Scholarship recipients are requested to contact Life Experiences immediately if the financial circumstances necessitating the scholarship have changed.

6. Scholarship Award Letter

Once recipients are selected, an award letter outlining the amount of the award, type of award, length of award, and requirements (if any) that must be met before receiving the award is sent by Life Experiences, Inc. to the scholarship recipient.

7. Record of Scholarship

Once a scholarship award is made, an eligibility sheet is to be maintained by Life Experiences in the personnel file of each scholarship award recipient. This document is reviewed annually and updated or amended to reflect changes in status. The eligibility sheet will include the following information:

- a) Name of Scholarship Recipient
 - b) Amount of Award, ($ amount)
 - c) Application and Accompanying Documents

8. Award Letter to Recipient

The award letter to the recipient shall include,

- a) Name of Scholarship Recipient
- b) Amount of Award, ($ amount)
- c) Start Date, End Date
- d) An explanation of how the award will be paid DIRECTLY to the service provider for services provided to the recipient including the service provider's name.
- e) A reminder that the reward is paid automatically, and it is the recipient's responsibility to notify LE if the recipient no longer attends programming at the service provider with thirty days' notice. Including information on how to contact LE for a change of status.
- f) A reminder that the recipient must submit a new application for the following year and the due date for next year's application.
- g) A reminder that Scholarship Recipients are requested to contact Life Experiences immediately if the financial circumstance necessitating the scholarship has been rectified.
- h) A statement regarding the confidentiality of the award amount.

Life Experiences strives to ensure that these policies and procedures are objective, fair, impartial, and in compliance with its mission and Board Policy.

9. Scholarship Application Procedure

Omission of any components listed below delays review of the application.
